

Marty Bergen's Four Brand-new Booklets

#37 Draw Trump, or NOT?

The often-crucial decision you must make on every hand you declare in a suit contract. Here's your chance to learn the right way to size up the situation and come to the right conclusion. Every deal you play in a suit contract will fit into one of Marty's four carefully-explained categories.

- The real truth about the correct frequency for drawing trump ASAP.
- A great summary chart which will prove invaluable on EVERY hand you declare in a suit contract.
- Understand how to KNOW when to play differently at matchpoints than at IMPs.
- How to overcome a bad trump split.
- Understand when and how to execute a safety play.
- How to survive hands with mirror distribution.

#38 2♣: Open or Not? Plus the Best Way to Follow Up

"Everything you need to know about an often misunderstood topic."

Over 100 helpful examples of what you should bid and why you should bid it. Features a great new EASY 5-star convention for responder to ENSURE not missing a fit in a major.

Exactly what do you need to open 2♣? Are you aware of the VERY different standards and the mindset needed for hands with long majors as opposed to ones with long minors?

After 2♣ is opened, what's next? The auctions that follow are critical, but often are far from obvious. However, there is a right way to proceed.

- What is the REAL KEY to good 2♣ auctions?
- How to bid good slams, and avoid bad ones.
- Last but definitely not least, how to survive a misfit.

#39 Timing Is Everything

Good timing is essential for both declarer play and defense. This booklet includes plenty of both.

How is YOUR timing?

21 interesting deals are presented with an interactive approach.

This gives the reader a chance to THINK and do the planning needed to play and defend better than he currently does.

- The right time to lose your loser early.
- How to make the best use of your entries, as well as creating additional ones.
- How the defenders can create extra trump tricks.
- When defending, you must do some counting.
Here are many practical tips to help YOU do it.

#40 Improve Your Bidding Judgment

“A must-read for every player who wants to bid better.”

The booklet is loaded with valuable tips you can use to improve YOUR judgment. 91 carefully-chosen hands give you a chance to make your bid before reading Marty’s answer and instructive explanation. Each example stresses the correct way to evaluate and sort through the possible bids and select the best one.

- The ONLY time it is correct to “preempt a preempt.”
- A little-known but ESSENTIAL DOUBLE after an opponent’s overcall.
